

What needs to be done?

An asset management plan will identify “What needs to be done?” to construct, maintain, renew and replace an asset. Asset management planning is a time to review all the strategies for maintenance and renewal and make a decision on which strategies will extend the life of an asset for the best price.