

City of Hamilton Wins Prestigious Municipal Paving Award

Ontario Good Roads Association awards best municipal paving practice to the City of Hamilton and Steed Evans Ltd.

Oakville, ON, March 10, 2021 – Ontario Good Roads Association (OGRA) has awarded the City of Hamilton and Steed Evans Ltd. its 2020 Municipal Paving Award.

“OGRA recognizes Hamilton and Steed Evans for in the Category of Municipal Paving, for their Hwy 8 reconstruction project. The project included industry best practices, protection of historical structures, and the use of end-result specifications (ERS) style of evaluation.” said Dr. James Smith, Manager of Technical Programs and Research, OGRA.

“The City proudly recognizes staff, Steed and Evans Ltd., City Council and community stakeholders for working collaboratively to ensure this project was completed safely and seamlessly. Thank you to motorists, cyclists, pedestrians and local residents for their patience as we completed these important infrastructure improvements on one of Hamilton’s most important road networks.” said Gord McGuire, Director of Engineering Services, City of Hamilton.

“Steed and Evans would like to thank the City of Hamilton and OGRA for recognizing our teams efforts on this project. This award is a result of dedicated work from our Quality Control personnel, Halton Asphalt plant, Staff and Paving crew.” said Mike Cripps, Project Manager, Steed and Evans Ltd.

OGRA holds a yearly competition for municipalities to submit their innovative concrete projects for recognition. The honour was presented during OGRA’s 2021 virtual conference which took place February 22-15, 2021. For more information on OGRA’s awards, visit <https://www.ogra.org/awards.html>
