ADVISORY

Environment Canada: Minor: Isolated thunderstorms and strong gusty winds possible this evening. Several rounds of showers will move through the area this evening bringing general rainfall amounts of 10 mm. However embedded isolated thunderstorms may boost local rainfall totals into the 15 to 25 mm range by late this evening. Localized ponding on streets and other low lying areas is possible. In addition, strong wind gusts to 80 km/h are possible this evening. Loose objects may be tossed by the wind and cause injury or damage. ### Please continue to monitor alerts and forecasts issued by Environment Canada.
